Staveley Hall

Funeral Receptions

The Passing of a Loved One is such a difficult time, at Staveley Hall we strive to make the process as smooth and easy as possible for you.

The Hall is situated next to St John The Baptist Church in Staveley, Chesterfield. It is a stunning Grade II listed building and is set back on its own private large drive. A peaceful place, perfect for an environment of remembrance, reflection and celebration.

Devonshire Room

Our professional and friendly team will make sure your wishes are carried out. We aim to ensure a stress-free reception or wake giving you private time with relations and friends in one of our function rooms.

Our team are on hand to guide you and assist you through the planning stages of your event. On appointment they can meet with you for viewings of the facilities, discuss room layouts and look at your itinerary and requirements for the day.

Frecheville Room

We can accommodate any of your preferences light refreshments, our afternoon tea or buffet style meal.

Inflatable Air Hall
